Voter Registration a Record Success in Los Angeles County Increased accessibility attributed to online voter registration activity

Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) has released a report on record-setting voter registration numbers following the close of registration, October 22. In addition to showing an increase in voter registration over prior years' voter registration, the report provides breakdown by age, political affiliation, and registration method.

An impressive 91,444 voter registrations were collected through the online voter registration program and traditional paper registrations on the final day to register to vote, October 22, in the upcoming Presidential election on November 6, 2012.

"To receive over 90,000 voter registrations and voter information updates in one single day is incredible," said Dean Logan, Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk, "Online voter registration offers increased accessibility and the convenience for our community."
